

A detailed pencil sketch of a child's head and neck, held gently by two hands. The child's eyes are closed, and the hands are positioned around the head, suggesting a therapeutic or supportive touch. The drawing is done in a soft, textured style with fine lines and shading.

Manual Therapy in Children

Edited by
Heiner Biedermann

